Beatitudes of Christian Living

"We are not the sum of our weaknesses and failures, we are the sum of the Father's love for us and our real capacity to become the image of His Son Jesus." ~ St. John Paul the Great

We are loved so much by God and He asks us to show each other love, care and kindness always.

A Winter Evening Prayer

Our Earth has turned once again toward the endless limits of space as a thousand stars come out to play.
I come before you in adoration and wonder at the vastness of your creation, which spans thousands of billions of miles.
I descend now with devotion into the tiny cave of my heart to be one with you in silent prayer.

O Beloved, your song of love is a silent one,
heard only by the ears of the heart.
Look with compassion upon my feeble efforts to still my ever-restless heart and my desire to listen to your eternal whisper.
Look with affection upon my words, as I now proclaim my love for you.

I pray to you, aware that my prayer is never private, even if I pray alone.
For my prayer is but a single thread
in the great weaving of this world's prayers that rise up to you from every part of the planet.

My friends and my family are dear to me,
and so I ask that you care for them this night.
In your providence, watch over in a special way _____.
Care for and protect those who are without lodging and food.
And grant that the children of this Earth
may look upon all who are in need as brothers & sisters.

Grant a peaceful night, O God,
not only to my body but also to my mind and soul.
And may the sacrament of sleep refresh my whole being this night.

O Guardian of Galaxies, Mother of the Cosmos and Father of Stars beyond counting,
may I sleep in you tonight.
Amen

Please Pray for our Sick and Homebound

We Sing Winter Ordinary Time

In these weeks between Christmas and Ash Wednesday (and the beginning of Lent) our liturgies are simpler; our worship space centers around the people, pulpit, and Table of the Lord.

Our Glory to God is the Taize' "Gloria in excelsis Deo, Alleluia." The response to the Hebrew Scripture is Psalm 113! Praised be the name of the Lord. "we Sing of our God who transcends the earth and skies, yet cares intimately for each and every person. We stand during the Celtic Alleluia as the Gospel is proclaimed. When we gather around the Table and celebrate Christ in our midst we sing of our mystery "when we eat this Bread and drink this Cup we proclaim your Death...". The Lord compels us to enter into the Cross of our world with new found faith in the power of God's Love. There is nothing ordinary about that!

Mass Cancellation

In the event that Father cancels Mass, it will be aired on the television thru the school closing network, and A bulk e-mail will be sent to all parishioners. If your e-mail is not on file with the office, please complete the form in the pew and drop in the collection basket or contact the office

Our Lady of Fatima Mission Statement

At our Lady of Fatima, Delanson, we are God's people sharing a responsibility to witness God's unconditional love and to bring God's healing presence to our world through our service to our community and beyond.
