Nothing Ordinary

The goal of scriptural reflection for Jewish and Christian communities is to put into practice in everyday life, serving as a guide, sustaining and nourishing our communities in our relationship with God, each other, and in our mission in/for/with the wider society. The readings of Ordinary Time for Roman Catholics are about that, about discipleship, about the meaning of following Jesus Christ in our lives and world with its many challenges and its many potentials. Starting with the beginnings of the public ministry of Jesus, his baptism, the call of the first disciples, his inaugural message about the coming reign of God, and the start of his impactful movement among the peoples Of Galilee, Ordinary Time calls us to participate in the mission and message of Jesus of Nazareth in our spheres of life.

The readings of Ordinary Time I also invite us to experience the energy of those early days of Jesus' galvanizing message and the transforming power of his mission among the people, to enter more deeply into his vision and "way" in a manner that makes a real-world practical difference. Together with the communal celebration of the Eucharist, the biblical texts call us to envision ourselves as participants in the stories, but more than that, as agents of Jesus' mission in/for/with the world. For its part, the Mass assures us that what we participate in and contribute to its not merely a human movement within its communities and institutions, but that this if from God. The Mass witnesses to the presence, work, and action of God in the world in and through us.

A way to live Ordinary Time through scripture is to rediscover the meaning of discipleship, to see ourselves as having been called to "follow me," to "seek first the kingdom of God and its righteousness," with all that it implies. For Christians are not only those who believe in Jesus Christ, but those who follow him by living, with the help of God's Spirit and grace, according to his teaching and indeed by his own example.

Our Lady of Fatima Mission Statement

At our Lady of Fatima, Delanson, we are God's people sharing a responsibility to witness God's unconditional love and to bring God's healing presence to our world through our service to our community and beyond.

We Sing Winter Ordinary Time

In these weeks between Christmas and Ash Wednesday (and the beginning of Lent) our liturgies are simpler; our worship space centers around the people, pulpit, and Table of the Lord.

Our Glory to God is the Taize' "Gloria in excelsis Deo, Alleluia." The response to thee Hebrew Scripture is Psalm 113! Praised be the name of the Lord. "we Sing of our God who transcends the earth and skies, yet cares intimately for each and every person. We stand during the Celtic Alleluia as the Gospel is proclaimed. When we gather around the Table and celebrate Christ in our midst we sing of our mystery "when we eat this Bread and drink this Cup we proclaim your Death...". The Lord compels us to enter into the Cross of our world with new found faith in the power of God's Love. There is nothing ordinary about that!

GIFT: At Our Lady of the Valley, Sunday, January 25 after the 9:00 AM Mass

Small Group Session 3 (Oil – anointing, laying on of hands and being sealed): Sunday, February 1 at OLF Center
Small Group Session 4: (Bread for the Journey): Sunday, March 1 at OLF Center. January Gift sessions include an adult program that centers on "Jesus and His Redemptive Mission". Our young disciples program will center around St. Clare and prayer. All are welcome!
