Come share the joy of God-With-Us
How do we want to witness to the light of the world
during this season?
Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

Come and see. All are welcome.

Deep Appreciation

Thank you to all who sent me beautiful Christmas cards and generous gifts. Your kindness and thoughtfulness mean more to me than you know, and I am deeply grateful for the love and support you continue to share.
May God, in His goodness, pour out abundant blessings upon you and your families in this New Year. With gratitude and prayer. Fr. Dr. Ben. Pastor

Wisdom of the Saints

"The ones who have a voice must speak for those who are voiceless."

~ St. Oscar Romero

Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord:

Following the Star that Leads Us Home

We all seek guidance as we search for meaning and purpose in life. In His goodness, God offers the light we need-moments of grace, quiet signs that awaken our hearts, and people whose faith gently draws us toward Him. The same star that guided the Magi still shines for us today, inviting us to lift our eyes and follow its light. On this second Sunday after Christmas, we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord-God's revelation to all nations. The visit of the Magi, seekers from distant lands, beautifully expresses this universal call. Their search first led them to Jerusalem, where neither Herod nor the religious leaders could not understand their longing. Yet the Magi persevered, and the star led them onward to Bethlehem. There they found the Christ Child with Mary, and they bowed in humble worship.

The Magi offered gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh-signs of Christ's kingship, divinity, and saving passion. Their journey mirrors our own, for we too are called to offer Christ our best: our time, our talents, and our treasure.

We also have "stars" in our lives, people whose wisdom, kindness, and faith guide us toward God. Their steady presence helps us navigate uncertainty and remain anchored in truth and goodness. After encountering the Christ Child, the Magi returned home by another way, forsaking Herod's darkness. Their courage invites us to lift our eyes, listen for God's direction, and choose the path that leads to Christ.

Like the Magi, we resolve to turn from the darkness of fear, hatred, violence, and indifference, and to walk in God's radiant light. As the Lord's grace transforms us, we become signs of hope for the world. Let us encounter Him in the Word and the Eucharist, offering our gifts: the gold of charity, the incense of prayer, and the myrrh of suffering transformed by His resurrection. May the star of faith lead us ever closer to Christ, the Light who guides us home.

Wishing you and all your loved ones a blessed and graced-filled New Year, strengthened by God's peace and guided by His enduring light.

Fr. Dr. Ben.

January Bulletin Quotes

"Through the incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him....Each of us is made in the Image and likeness of the God, and we reflect his glory in the world."

Question of the Week

Then Herod sent the magi to Bethlehem, saying: Go and search diligently for the child: and when you have found him bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." (Matthew 2:8)

Adults: When have you been jealous or fearful of another person? When are such feelings harmful?

Kids: When have you been jealous because something good happened to another person instead of you? What is the problem with feeling that way?

Old Church Repairs

Since the pipe break during Columbus Day weekend, the damaged materials have been removed, the areas have been dried out, contractors and suppliers have submitted their bids. We met with the insurance adjuster 12/16 Tuesday, and all repairs have been approved and scheduling will soon begin to sign contracts. We are hoping for completion between February and March 2026.

2026 Envelopes

After January 1, 2026 all remaining boxes are in the office. If your number changed please do not begin using the new number prior to January 1, 2026 in order to properly credit donations. A contribution of $5.00 in the initial offering envelope will help defray the cost of the envelopes.

Justice for Orphans
