Live Lent!

MAKE THIS LENT ABOUT WHAT YOU DO, NOT WHAT YOU DON'T DO!

During the coming Lenten season, instead of depriving yourself of some type of food or some form of entertainment, join a small group for six weeks and participate in Live Lent, an opportunity to read Scripture and share your faith with some of your fellow parishioners. Small groups will meet for 90 minutes once a week at someone's home. The faith-sharing also provides meditations for you to use on the other days of Lent. It's a great way to make Lent a more meaningful season as you prepare to celebrate the resurrection.

WHY JOIN A SMALL GROUP FOR LENT?

Maybe you'd like to meet new people. Maybe you'd like to spend more time sharing your faith with others and hearing them express their own faith. Maybe you'd like to grow spiritually. Maybe you'd like to deepen your relationship with God. Whatever your reason—it's the right one.

If you are interest in joining a small group, please call 607-397-9373.

Celebrate Scout Sunday – Feb 8th!

Join us in celebrating Scout Sunday on February 8, 2026! We invite all Scouts and their families to wear their uniforms to the 10:30 am Mass as we recognize their dedication to duty, service, and faith. We thank our Scouts for living out the "Duty to God" and for their service to our parish community.

Mardi Gras Hospitality

Please join our Discipleship Formation Children at our pre-Mardi Gras hospitality on Sunday, February 15th after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Learn the connection with Mardi Gras and Lent and why Catholics celebrate it. “Bring your favorite Mardi Gras recipe to share.” Hope to see you all there!!

Can you help us financially?

Thank you for your generous support to St. Joseph. Your donation helps us to pay the bills. Without you, what will we do? Please attend mass and help us with your offering. Now you can make your weekly offering to St. Joseph by mail or place it in our side door rectory drop box. You are all in my prayers and masses. God Bless You! Fr. Joe

WATCH ON FORMED!!

About this series

Using the highly-acclaimed Augustine Institute programs Symbolon and Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession, A Lent to Remember explores the ways God reaches out to each of us with his mercy. Through Christ's suffering on the cross in the Paschal Mystery and his perpetual reception of his people in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God makes his love, his very self, present to us in the world. By reflecting on the Paschal Mystery and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite of Confession, A Lent to Remember communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love this Lent.

Sincerest Sympathy—David Staruck

Fr. Joe and the parishioners of St. Joseph would like to express our sincere sympathy to the Staruck and Krueger families for the loss of David. We pray for the repose of his soul. May our Lord give him eternal reward! May he rest in peace!

A funeral mass will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church on Monday, February 2nd at 11:00 a.m. with Fr. John Rosson.

Fat Tuesday

What do Catholics do on Fat Tuesday?

This day is commonly called “Fat Tuesday” because it's tradition to eat food made with butter, eggs, and fat, such as meat and desserts. It's a day of celebration before many Catholics give up these delicacies for the duration of the Lenten season.

Christian teaching and morals took root, but there always remained a strong need to blend ancient Roman traditional practices with the growing Christian faith. The blending of tradition with new religious beliefs as a common practice in the ancient world and it helped people to transition away from paganism. In fact, there are a number of ancient Roman Catholic Church's to this day, where they continue to guide the faithful.

Still, the original intent of Mardi Gras has always been to indulge, within the context of Catholic morality and reason, the last day before the start of the Lenten season. While Lent is a season of self-sacrifice and repentance, it is not meant to be a period of self-punishment or extreme hardship.

Saint Brigid of Ireland
Feast Day—February 1st

One of the biggest traps you can fall into in the spiritual life is thinking that holiness is about doing something extraordinary. But most of the time, holiness is just about doing the ordinary things of life with great love. And every time we do something with great love, that's a Holy Moment. Everything is an opportunity for a Holy Moment. Saint Brigid of Ireland found opportunities in every circumstance of life to collaborate with God and create Holy Moments. Brigid was the daughter of a pagan chieftain named Dubthach and his Christian slave woman, Broicsech (who was baptized by Saint Patrick). Brigid took her mother's faith and put it into action from a young age. Even though she was her father's slave, she would often take his valuables and give them to the poor. Dubthach became so infuriated that he tried to sell her to an Irish king. While Dubthach was speaking to the king, Brigid took her father's jeweled sword and gave it to a beggar who sold it to feed his family. That could easily have been the end for Saint Brigid, but the Irish king recognized her holiness and freed her from bondage. Brigid's holiness started in little ways. She found opportunities for a Holy Moment in every situation. The impact of these Holy Moments is symbolized in the legend of her cloak. The story goes that when she requested land from a local king to build her monastery and was refused, she asked for as much land as her cloak would cover. Upon laying her cloak on the ground, it miraculously expanded to cover acres for the monastery.

Small acts done with great love. They might not seem like much before you try them, but once you do, you'll realize each Holy Moment has miraculous power.

Everything is an opportunity for a Holy Moment.

Do I actively look for opportunities throughout the day to collaborate with God and create Holy Moments? What Holy Moment can I create today?
