

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time*October 27-28, 2018*From Fr. Anthony Ligato*Making ourselves known to the Lord!

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I have learned to accept as a Priest that no matter wherever I am, someone is going to recognize me. This especially happens to me on my day off when I am out doing errands such as grocery shopping or at the hardware store. In those moments I am usually in a sweat shirt, jeans and a Yankee cap on my head. One day, I was at the deli counter at the market dressed in sweatshirt, jeans and a Yankee cap when one of the employees behind the counter shouts out hi Father! With that what seemed like a dozen people turned around and looked at me, I said in sheepish voice, hi, how are you. No matter how much I want to go unnoticed on my day off so that I can complete my errands and the errands my Mother is sending me on, because most of my day off is taken up with completing her list of things I have to do for her. But that is another story for another homily. I have come to accept that the totality of my life is to do the Lord's will, even on my day off. That is not always easy to accept, even Jesus disciples had difficulty accepting that reality.

Take for example the blind man Bartimaeus in today's Gospel from Mark 10:46-52. Bartimaeus needs to be noticed by Jesus and so he does whatever he needs to do to get Jesus' attention. There is something however that precedes his need to be noticed by Jesus and that something is; faith. It was faith that brought Bartimaeus to sit at that roadside among the sizeable crowd waiting for Jesus to leave Jericho. What made him think he could get Jesus' attention? It was faith that brought him to believe that Jesus would heal him. Because he believed he knew Jesus was the promised Messiah. The word's he speaks reveals this truth and these words of truth would get Jesus' attention. "On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." Nothing and no one were going to stop him from being heard. The crowd which included Jesus' Disciples told him to be silent. He recognized Jesus even without the ability to physically see, he could see more than all the religious officials. There would be no silencing him after all this was his chance to once and for all forever change his life. Jesus did not silence him, he told his Disciples to call him over and Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" There is the moment in all our lives that just getting the Lord's attention is not enough, we have to believe and have faith that Jesus Christ can change our lives forever. In the blind man's reply, we see the power of faith. "The blind man replied to him, Master, I want to see." He did not doubt that Jesus could give him sight and it was that faith that healed him. Bartimaeus' life was forever changed to the point that not only could he see but now he was going to follow Jesus along the way as a disciple witnessing to the healing power of God. Bartimaeus would have been familiar with today's Psalm, "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with Joy."

Continued...

(Psalm 126: 1-6) After Bartimaeus got Jesus' attention and was healed of his physical blindness he had the spiritual insight to follow Jesus and this spiritual insight filled him with joy.

Jesus who is our great High Priest enables us to be healed of our physical and spiritual blindness? "Every High Priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins." (Hebrews 5:1-6) Jesus who healed the blind man makes it possible for us all to be healed because he is our great High Priest, "You are a Priest in the order of Melchizedek." (Hebrews 5:6) Jesus is the one who offers the sacrifice as high priest and he is the sacrifice which is offered on the cross, the sacrifice which replaces all other sacrifices. Jeremiah tells us God has heard our cry and that our wailing and groaning should be turned into shouts of joy. "Thus, says the Lord: Shout with joy." (Jeremiah 31:7-9) Are we able to recognize Jesus as he walks by and shout with Joy, Jesus Son of David! Do we recognize that we need healing? Do we have enough insight and self-reflection to make ourselves known to the Lord?

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Anthony
