Celebrating Faithful Service to God's People

With gratitude, we recognize and celebrate the ordination anniversaries of Fr. Donlon, who marks 51 years of priesthood on May 31, and Fr. Joe, who marks 35 years of priesthood on June 8. We thank God for their faithful service, their "yes" to the priesthood, and the many ways they have shared Christ's love through the sacraments, prayer, preaching, and pastoral care. May God continue to bless them with strength, joy, and peace in their ministry.

Passing on the Faith, One Child at a Time

As we start to plan for next year, we would like to reflect on our catechists for our program. We have a small, yet very powerful group of teachers who are excited to be with the children, and they truly enjoy sharing their faith with the students. Some of our teachers have been a part of Faith Formation for many years, and are now teaching the children of students who they previously taught many years ago. We also have some very new teachers-we have one teacher who was confirmed only 2 years ago. We also have two young ladies who were just Confirmed who will join us next year with a new preschool program on Sunday mornings. Our parishes are blessed by the time and talents of this group, and we are eternally grateful for all they do for our children!

We are beginning to plan for next year! We are in need of Catechists, Catechist Assistants and substitute teachers. Please consider joining our team, if interested please email ffstmichaels@gmail.com.
