Reflection for the Week

In today's Gospel, Jesus simplifies the more than 600 laws the Jews had to follow. He identifies for them the two most important laws—those that actually cover all the rest. It's all about love.

Do I embrace through my thoughts, words, and actions those two commandments?

ADVENT WREATH MAKING SIGN-UPS

So often we are overwhelmed by the material aspect of “getting ready for Christmas” and overlook the real welcoming of Jesus. Help ready our hearts and minds this Advent for the coming of Christ into our lives and our world by making a wreath and prayerfully marking the days of this joyous season. What a beautiful way to keep us centered on the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and add a little peace to the hectic days during the four weeks leading to Christmas. Family Life Ministry will hold a signup to participate and purchase your materials in the Gathering Space 11/9-10 and 11/16-17. Choices: 1. Make-and-Go: Order and purchase the materials you need. Some people reuse the ring and bows from last year. Make your wreath in the company of other parish families. If you are new to making a wreath, we will show you how to make one ~ easy to make and fun to do, and takes about 30 minutes and enjoy some refreshments and Christmas! There will also be kid crafts and Advent resources and prayers provided. 2. Take-and-Go: Purchase your materials and take them with you to make the wreath at home. Prayers and resources will be available. 3. Order a premade wreath for $25. Costs: Wreath Ring:$8 Balsam Greens: $5 Set of 4 purple/pink candles: $4 Set of 4 coordinating bows: $3 Wreath making & supply pick up will happen December 1 after the 11 am Mass in the Knights Chapel. For more info email Vicky cvmyers9@gmail.com

LOVING & CARING, GIVING & RECEIVING

Each year the Visitation Ministry delivers about 400 Christmas cards to all Catholics in our area who are hospitalized, in care facilities, and to CTK parishioners who are homebound and ill. We need your help to continue making this possible! Imagine the cheer, love and concern you will help bring to those who receive your cards! Your cards are so meaningful & brighten the lives of so many. Loving & caring, giving & receiving ~ the message of Jesus. Beginning November 9th, please visit the Family Life table in the Gathering Space to pick up a starter kit to make cards. Instructions and a few materials are provided. When finished making your cards return them to the basket by Dec 1. Our Visitation Ministers will then deliver your cards in time for Christmas. Thank you in advance for participating in this event which makes a difference to so many!

PRAYER SHAWL RECIPIENTS

Our thanks and appreciation to a lovey parishioner for her sweet Mass remembrance for our Prayer Shawl Ministry. So gracious of you! We also appreciated the feed-back from a recipient of one of our shawls, saying how much one of Lois' shawls meant to her. We know that our shawls have gone to North Carolina, St. Louis, Hawaii and beyond! We simply knit/crochet, ribbon, bow and bless each shawl as a gift—for so they are—and let the Holy Spirit take them where the Spirit will! An exciting thought! Prayer shawls can be found in our Rectory Office during week-day hours or call Maryann Markham 518-456-5301.
