Adjusted Mass Schedule Weekends for Holy Trinity Church in 2023

The Sunday Mass schedule for Holy Trinity Church will be adjusted from the usual 8 am and 10 am Masses to a single 9 am Mass on Sunday, March 19th, Sunday, July 23rd, and Sunday, August 27th.

One of the main reasons for the adjustment is to better accommodate visiting priests who provide coverage when Fr. Matt is away either for a parish-related reason (the high school confirmation preparation retreat) or for his personal vacation. Many of the clergy who cover our linked parishes' weekend Masses are older, retired priests who have informed diocesan parishes that three weekend Masses are more reasonable for them to handle as opposed to four or more Masses.

The linked parish pastoral council is in agreement with Fr. Matt that it would make the most sense to adjust the Holy Trinity Sunday Morning Masses based on overall average attendance for our usual four weekend Masses and the belief that a single 9 am Mass at Holy Trinity should be able to accommodate all of the usual 8 am and 10 am Holy Trinity Sunday Mass attendees.

Thank you in advance for your patience and understanding as we strive to do the best we can to provide meaningful worship opportunities for our communities and take into consideration the health and well-being of our generous, retired clergy who provide coverage.
