We Pray Easter

Our Church is alive with flowers, colors, aromas, and Easter faith during these 50 Days of Resurrection. Our music and song gather, inspire, and uplift. Each week we exclaim "Glory to God", singing of a new Creation.

Our response to the Acts of the Apostles (our first reading during Easter) is Psalm 118: "Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea. Raise your voices, lift your hearts. This is the day the Lord has made. Let all the earth rejoice." We approach the Gospel with the exuberant Caribbean "Alleluia". Jesus is the way, the truth, the life. We renew our faith in a resounding "I do" to the Creedal questions. When we gather around the Lord's Table we sing of our mystery: "Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free." We are sent forth with an Alleluia in our heart witnessing to the unconditional love of God.

BEATITUDES OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

"Persevere in prayer. Persevere, even when your efforts seem sterile. Prayer is always fruitful."

~St. Josemaría Escrivá

We praise God and glorify Him as we spend time in prayer and thank Him for His blessings.

O wind that blows when and where it will, teach me to reverence the Wind of Heaven.

O mover of tree tops and tall grasses,
you who are the servant of no other forces, open me up to the mysterious Breath of God.

O Divine Wind, blowing with the Spirit's sweetness through a chant-filled mosque in Arabia, or causing a silent heart to dance in a hidden hermit's cave high in the Himalayas, or caressing with compassion
an abandoned packing crate in an urban slum, wherein sleeps a homeless drifter;
let me feel your loving touch.

Lift me up above my selfish interests, spreading my concerns wider than myself.
Exhale a gale of your grace into me and set me under full sail as your servant of life and of love.

Remind me with your every movement that history has shown clearly how you are the private property of none, how great and passionate movements have lost touch with your breath of life and so have become empty of their youthful zeal.

Wind of Inspiration, Creative Spirit of God, teach me not to forget that you come always as gift.
Remind me always to be ready to receive and romance and dance with joy wherever and whenever you visit, or risk that you may move on without me.
May I ever be sensitive to your gentle breezes and willing to soar with your wild winds.

Honoring Those Who Served

This year marks the 80th anniversary of the end of World War II in 1945. V-E Day (Victory in Europe) is May 8th; V-J Day (Victory in Japan) is August 15th). We laid a wreath in front of church on May 8 to commemorate those days of victory, peace, mourning, sacrifice, and hope. In Church, we would like to remember anyone who served in any capacity during the War. Please bring to our office a 4x6 or 5x7 photograph of a loved one, neighbor or parishioner to be placed on our wall of holy remembrance.
