We Pray

As we continue into Summer Ordinary Time, our liturgies reflect the beauty of the season. Our Glory to God is the Taize' chant, "Gloria, in excelsis Deo, Alleluia. "Psalm 113 is the response to the Hebrew Scriptures. We sing, Praised be the name of the Lord." The Gospel acclamation celebrates the wonder of God throughout all Creation: "Before the sun burned bright or rivers flowed. I called you each by name to share my home, no longer be afraid I am your God my Love will never end, Alleluia!

During our Eucharistic Prayer we sing our mystery: "When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord until you come again." We enter into the Cross of our people, our world, as witnesses to Christ's life giving presence among us all Prayer Ministry prays for anyone in need of prayer. You can request prayers or join in this ministry. Call James Keller at (518) 295-7970 or e-mail him at jamesakeller@msn.com. From our lips to God's ears. Give your concerns to God and join your parish family in faith and love.

A Prayer for Faithful Citizenship

Gracious and loving God, let your Spirit be with us today. Hear our prayers and increase in us the will to follow your Son Jesus. Help us to draw on the resources of our faith as we use the opportunities of our democracy to shape a society more respectful of the life, dignity and rights of the human person, especially the poor and vulnerable. May we truly live our ideals. Let us be a beacon of hope for all people. Fill us with your peace. In the midst of all our struggles may our words be gentle and true, and our actions be welcoming and noble, and our lives be joyful and life giving. Amen

The New Colossus

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame.
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.
"Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she
With silent lips. "Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

We are the land of the free
we are the home of the brave.
Let's pay tribute to our brave
American Heroes on this special day and forever.
HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY!

Beatitudes of Christian Living

"I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will be judged not by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character." ~ Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteous, for they will be filled. We must always fight for equality and justice for all.

Join us as we spend a 4-Week Personal Retreat with the Female Doctors of the Church! We will be using the guide, "Set the World on Fire" by Vinita Hampton Wright. When and Where:

Our Lady of Fatima Center starting Tuesdays, July 18th through August 8th after the 9am Mass. Sign-up sheets will be available during the month of June in the back of the church.

Please note that the Liturgy of the Word newsletter is available for our young disciples' grades 1 – 5. They are in plastic bags with crayons that can be used during Mass. The Second Day of July 1776, will be the most memorable Epocha, in the History of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated, by succeeding Generations, as the great anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the Day of Deliverance by solemn Acts of Devotion to God Almighty. - John Adams
