Far Beyond...

Far beyond our mind's grasp and our tongue's declaring,
in a holy mystery, quietly, truly you are here;
lifted once on Calvary, sin and weakness bearing,
O Lord, how wonderful you call us to draw near!

None of us is worthy to receive your essence in this meal together; yet this gift is yours by choice;
death can never snatch us from your holy presence.
Your promise is for life; we only can rejoice.

So our hearts are lifted to the realms above us,
nourished and united by the precious bread and wine:
here what sweet contentment, knowing that you love us!
We thank you for this feast, this fellowship divine.

Soon you bid us scatter - share what we inherit - from this house of blessing where we taste your peace and grace.

May our lives be altars glowing with your Spirit to light the lamps of those who also seek your face.

~ Francisco F Feliciano, Philippines

Beatitudes of Christian Living

"If we love God and want to have a good relationship with God and grow closer to God, we will want to please God, serve God and do God's will." ~ Saint Ignatius

Each and every day, we must serve God and do his will in all of our actions.

We Pray Ordinary Time

Our worship space and liturgies are simpler (compared to the exuberance of Easter and wonder of Christmas) yet noble in their own beauty. Our Glory to God is the Taize mantra "Gloria, in excelsis Deo, Alleluia. The response to the Hebrew Scripture is Psalm 118: Whose love is forever, whose love is forever more. Our Gospel acclamation is a joyful "Alle, Alle, Alleluia!" In our gathering at the Lords' Table we sing the Mass of Mother Cabrini, music in honor of this immigrant woman, who served so many new comers to our land. In faith we sing "When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again." we witness to God's Eternal love, even in the midst of the world's Cross. As we break the Bread we chant "Lamb of God, miserere nobis; Dona nobis pacem" (have mercy on us and grant us peace). We though many, are from and of the One Body of Christ.
