The Garden Song

Inch by inch, row by row, gonna make this garden grow.
All it takes is a rake and a hoe and a piece of fertile ground.

Inch by inch, row by row,
some-one bless these seeds I sow.
Some-one warm them from below till the rain comes tumblin' down.

Pullin' weeds, pickin' stones,
We are made of dreams and bones.
Feel the need to grow my own Cause the time is close at hand.
Grain for grain, sun and rain Find my way in nature's chain Tune my body and my brain
To the music from the land Plant your rows straight and long, Temper them with prayer and song.
Mother Earth will make you strong
If you give her love and care.
An old crow watching hungrily
From his perch in yonder tree,
In my garden I'm as free
As that feathered thief up there.

The Earth

The earth is at the same time mother, she is mother of all that is natural, mother of all that is human,
She is the mother of all,
for contained in her are the seeds of all.

The earth of humankind contains at moistness,
all verdancy,
all germinating power.

It is in so many ways fruitful.
All creation comes from it.
Yet it forms not only the basic raw material for humankind, but also the substance of the incarnation of God's son.

~Hildegard of Bingen
