We Pray Ordinary Time

Our worship space and liturgies are simpler (compared to the exuberance of Easter and wonder of Christmas) yet noble in their own beauty. Our Glory to God is the Taize mantra "Gloria, in excelsis Deo, Alleluia. The response to the Hebrew Scripture is Psalm 118: Whose love is forever, whose love is forever more. Our Gospel acclamation is a joyful "Alle, Alle, Alleluia!" In our gathering at the Lords' Table we sing the Mass of Mother Cabrini, music in honor of this immigrant woman, who served so many new comers to our land. In faith we sing "When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again." we witness to God's Eternal love, even in the midst of the worlds' Cross. As we break the Bread we chant "Lamb of God, miserere nobis; Dona nobis pacem" (have mercy on us and grant us peace). We though many, are from and of thee One Body of Christ.

Beatitudes of Christian Living

"Above all trust in the slow work of God. Only God could say what this new spirit gradually forming within you will be. Give our Lord the benefit of believing that His hand is leading you, and accept the anxiety of feeling yourself in suspense and incomplete." ~ Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

Father, Son and Holy Spirit, One God, in perfect Community, look now on us, and hear our prayer for our community: where there is falseness, smother it by your truth: where there is coldness, kindle the flame of your love; where there is joy and hope, free us to share it together: where there is anything we will not do for ourselves, make us discontent until it is done, And make us one, as you are one.

Before God and you who are near me, I release anything I hold against you. I regret all I have done to harm you. I stand beside the wrong in my life and ask God's forgiveness. Before God and you who are near us. We release anything we hold against you. We regret all we have done to harm you. We stand beside the wrong in our lives and ask God 's forgiveness.

The Lord Jesus Christ says to us, each one: 'Go and sin no more, come and follow me.' Now bind our hands with honesty as we offer them to each other and our prayer to you.
