Eucharistic Ministers

Commissioning of Eucharistic Ministers on Corpus Christi ; weekend of June 21 – 22.

“Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God's gift of new life!”

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity: The Mystery of God in Himself

Human beings are, by nature, social and interconnected. From the moment of birth, we are embraced by the intimate bonds of family and as we grow, our identities are shaped by the wider communities of school, church, and society. On this Sunday following Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, contemplating the divine community at the very heart of God.

The Blessed Trinity-Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit is the central mystery of our Christian faith and life. It reveals the very nature of God: One divine essence in three distinct Persons eternally united in perfect love, harmony, and purpose. This sacred mystery is not merely a doctrine to be studied and understood intellectually, but a living reality to be embraced with awe and devotion.

From the beginning of our Christian journey, we are marked by the Trinity. At Baptism, we are welcomed into God's life with the words: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” This sacred formula reveals a profound truth: God is one, yet a communion of three co-equal, and co-eternal Persons united in perfect love. The Most Holy Trinity is our model of unity and self-giving love, calling us to reflect that same love in our daily lives through mutual respect, service, and communion with one another.

Today's readings invite us to grow in divine wisdom and to share God's truth with others.

In the first reading from Proverbs, wisdom is personified as present before the creation of the world. This poetic image points to Christ, the Eternal Word through whom all things were made. Jesus is the visible face of the invisible God, revealing the Father and inviting us into the life of the Spirit.

In the Letter to the Romans, Saint Paul reminds us that God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who dwells within us.

In the Gospel, Jesus promises the coming of the Holy Spirit, who will guide us into all truth and continue to reveal the fullness of God's love. The Spirit dwells with us and empowers us to live as children of God.

Though the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity surpasses human understanding, it does not exclude our participation. We are invited to live in its image, through love, unity, and self-giving. Every time we make the sign of the Cross, we recall this divine mystery and our call to reflect it in our lives. Let us all strive to live as true children of the Triune God. Together with the Psalmist, let us proclaim: “O Lord, our God, how majestic is your name in all the earth.”

May the Most Holy Trinity bless us, strengthen our faith, and make us instruments of His love and unity in the world. I wish all our fathers a truly wonderful Father's Day. May your day be filled with peace, love, and joy!

God bless,
Fr. Dr. Ben

This site prescreens for many of the programs the state sponsors.

Questions of the Week

For in him all fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things...

Adults: Have you had an experience of not having enough of some gift or grace, than received more than enough? What happened?

Kids: What do you have a little of that you can share with someone who has less?

In the beginning....Coping with Life Alone

A one day Zoom program which will be held on Saturday June 28, 2025 from 9AM to 4PM.

Our ministry serves those who have lost a spousal relationship due to death, divorce, or separation. When people go from being a part of a couple to being alone, the pain they experience – and the difficulties they face in navigating this new reality – are common to the widowed, divorced and separated.

For further information or to register – contact Jim at 845-220-7883 or Denise at 845-325-3147.

June Bulletin Quotes

“Christ’s blood reveals to man that his greatness, and therefore his vocation, consists in the sincere gift of self ... It is from the blood of Christ that all draw the strength to commit themselves to promoting life. It is precisely this blood that is the most powerful source of hope. Indeed it is the foundation of the absolute certitude that in God’s plan life will be victorious”.

~ Pope Saint Paul II, Evangelium vitae 1995, Libreria Editrice Vaticana
