Call for Altar Servers

You will notice in the bulletin this week that there are no altar servers scheduled for the 10:30 AM Mass next week. We have just seven youth of our parish volunteering to be altar servers. In order to not "burn them out" there will be weekends when one of the Masses does not have altar servers. If you have a child or grandchild who would like to become an altar server please speak to Father Ben. Their willingness to serve in this ministry would be appreciated by the Sacred Heart family.

Thank you to everyone who helped in any way with our Graduate Recognition celebration by sharing your time, talents and treasures. May you be richly blessed for your generous efforts. I greatly appreciate it.
~Paula Ciborowski

Please join us after the 4:00 PM Mass Saturday, July 5 to pray the rosary. All our welcome to join us in the church. If you do not have a rosary there are ones available in the vestibule for your use.

Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul

This weekend, we celebrate the legacies of two great pillars of the church- Saints Peter and Paul. Together, they embody the universality of the Church. Though Peter and Paul came from vastly different backgrounds, they were united in their unwavering love for Christ and in their mission to proclaim the Gospel and shepherd God's people.

Peter, originally named Simon, was a humble fisherman from Galilee. When Jesus called him and his brother Andrew, they left everything to follow Him, becoming fishers of people. Jesus chose Peter to lead the twelve Apostles, declaring him the rock upon which He would build His Church, making him the first Pope. Despite his human limitations, Peter remained faithful and devoted to Jesus.

Paul, formerly known as Saul, was a zealous Pharisee, and a fierce persecutor of the early Christians. Born in Tarus, (modern-day Turkey), he was a brilliant scholar trained under the great Rabbi Gamaliel in Jerusalem. Paul became a passionate apostle and teacher to the Gentiles after his dramatic encounter with the Risen Christ on the road to Damascus. He undertook numerous missionary journeys, proclaiming the Gospel throughout the Roman Empire.

Both Apostles gave their lives for Christ in Rome, dying as martyrs for the faith. According to tradition, Peter was crucified upside down around 64 A.D., choosing the manner of death out of humility, not considering himself worthy to die in the same manner as his Lord. Paul, a Roman citizen, was beheaded around 67 A.D.

Their lives serve as powerful reminders that God calls each of us, regardless of our past to a life of holiness, purpose, and transformation. Their enduring legacy is honored in the magnificent basilicas of Rome: Saint Peter's Basilica at the Vatican, built over Peter's tomb, and Saint Paul Outside the Walls, marking the site of Paul's martyrdom. Together they are venerated as the founders of the Church in Rome and its patron Saints.

The readings for today's feast offer powerful glimpses into their lives and ministry.

In the first reading, we witness the miraculous moment when Peter, bound in chains and guarded in prison, was set free by an angel from God, a sign of divine providence and deliverance. In the second reading, Paul reflects his own life's mission with the words: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. He speaks of his life being poured out like a libation, and of the crown of righteousness awaiting him from the Lord. Paul's words echo the hope of each of us striving to remain faithful on our journey toward God.

In the Gospel, Peter confidently proclaimed Jesus as the Christ, the Anointed One, the Son of the Living God. In response, Jesus entrusted him with the keys of the kingdom of heaven and the leadership of His church.

As we honor Saints Peter and Paul, may their steadfast witness inspire us to deepen our faith and commitment to Christ. Like them, let us boldly proclaim the Gospel with courage and conviction, remaining faithful to the end. May we grow in love for the Lord, follow Him wholeheartedly, and joyfully bring His light to others!

God bless,
Fr. Dr. Ben
