Thank you to everyone who worked to make Fr. Marty's Anniversary Mass such a meaningful and joy-filled celebration. At his request, the celebration was held at St. Joseph's—the church where his vocation first took shape and where he offered his very first Mass. The sight of 340 people filling the church, many traveling from the communities he has served over the past 40 years, was a powerful testament to the reach of his ministry. Each person represented a life touched, a moment of grace shared, a story shaped by his presence. When you imagine the ripple effect of four decades of faithful service, the impact becomes almost immeasurable. What a privilege for our parish to be the place where that remarkable journey began.
