Thoughts for Our Daily Lives

During the Lenten journey, we have given up many things. Perhaps instead of giving up these things only during Lent, we can, as Pope Francis advised several years ago, dedicate ourselves to making this world a better place.

RISSE – Refugee Update, April 19-20, 2025

While RISSE continues to work with immigrants and Refugees, I have just had a discussion with the Immigration Office (USCRI) that oversees all vetted, approved refugees. While staff were cut, there are fortunately some left who are allowed to work with refugees who had arrived. There were $ cuts for the last group as normally each refugee is allotted a small sum (@ 1000,) to assist them with extra expenses. (e.g., Laundry costs, which can be expensive for families).

The last group did NOT receive that money so USCRI sought out private donations to close that gap. This would be an example of how other organizations, churches, etc. can help. This change from the administration is another example of the confusion for new legal arrivals. *She informed me that other diocese churches are interested in helping so after Easter we will be looking into that. She also noted that NYS government has been very supportive in helping where they can. (e.g. consumer protection to prevent scams as we mentioned previously).

Food Banks- Last week the NE Regional Food Bank announced that the Administration cuts will initially result in the loss of 22 Tractor Trailer loads of foodstuffs! My contact said they are "navigating " through this by looking for OTHER sources to fill certain product gaps as this potentially worsens.

The gift cards ARE a key resource both at RISSE and at USCRI. Some donors are also doing gift VISA, etc. cards as these allow more flexibility for foodstuffs for our Muslim refugees that are not always available at standard grocery stores.

Jim Shannon, our parishioner, has informed me that he has now met with the Employment staffer at RISSE so that they can interview appropriate refugees, etc. for possible employment through his company.

Also, thanks to Mary Ann Roberts for the 2 strollers which I delivered Apr. 9th. They still have a waiting list and the best choice are the foldable "umbrella" types that are easy to use with public transportation.

I must tell you quite honestly, when I drop off cards, etc. I often come away near tears for what these people are going through, especially since some of them have been waiting in camps overseas for literally YEARS as all the vetting, security steps are taken to allow them to finally arrive here in the states. The phrase, "Judge ye not, lest ye be judged," comes to mind.

Thanks everyone for your caring, Ken Scallon

Carlos Acutis

From the Catholic News Agency....

“The new film on Carlo Acutis to be released on his canonization date, Carlo Acutis: Roadmap to Reality, the highly anticipated documentary on the life of the soon-to-be saint, will be released in theaters nationwide for a limited time from April 27–29. The release date coincides with Pope Francis’ canonization of Carlo Actuis, the Catholic Church’s first millennial saint, on April 27.

Roadmap to Reality explores the life of Acutis and the lessons he offers young people regarding the challenges of the digital world. The documentary blends live action, animation, and documentary-style interviews with Acutis’ family, friends, tech experts, and scholars to tackle urgent questions about artificial intelligence and the technological world we live in.”

OUR CENSUS

Many have returned the census update form Thank you! We are still missing half of the updates. If you have not returned an update, please do. If you do not have any changes to return, it is still important to respond with no changes. If you know someone who does not regularly attend service or is sick or homebound, or is on vacation, please consider bringing or mailing them a form. The forms are near the bulletin in the front of the church. Even though it is now a few months into 2025, this is still important and must be completed. Thank you.
