Coffee Hour

Next Sunday- June 22!

Plan some time to indulge in coffee, snacks, and conversation.

Do you like to Garden?

If you like to garden, and you like fresh veggies or maybe a you like to watch green things grow...

Behind the Rectory there is an ideal place for some tomatoes or peppers, pole beans or zucchini and other such good things. It is an old once cultivated garden plot, about 5 feet wide and 25 feet long, waiting for new roots. Please bring your plants and gardening skills, revitalize the space and enjoy.

The Box

During Lent, a box was placed in the front of the church where "Kind of Acts" written down on pieces of paper then deposited in the box. Each week a few acts of kindness were taken from the box and read aloud.

Lent may be over; however, the box remains. The process remains.

This box, the little slips of paper, with acts of kindness written on them, the reading of these acts, will be a reminder to live our faith each day. A small act such as holding a door for someone, calling on a sick friend or assisting a person in the grocery store demonstrates our living faith. A small, ordinary act of kindness and respect seemingly gone unnoticed accept by our faith.

In Our Community

IMMIGRATION – Refugee Update June 12, 2025

Please see the flyer in the pews for our SPECIAL COLLECTIONS COMING UP FOR THE ROHINGYA FAMILIES that we can help in Albany. This will be our attempt to help these two families, one mom and 5 kids, another mom and one kid. Sadly, no fathers, only reference was they were "persecuted". Let's see if we can use our $$ as leverage with a couple more parishes....

My thanks to all who donated soccer balls, (including my GA daughter who manages her sons Soccer Team). We have 10! Also, the totes, and the SEWING MACHINE, (Thanks Michelle!).AND the mammoth bag of Plush Toys from Father John! and cash and gift cards!!!

If you still have things like that, I can take, but we need to keep our financial focus on those families.

blessings, Ken

The measure of the greatness of a society is found in the way it treats those most in need, those who have nothing apart from their poverty.

Thoughts from Walt

"Yes, Josefa, I did indeed say that Love gives Itself to Its own and it is true . . . Come, draw near My Heart and enter in, and taste and see what its overwhelming emotions are."

"Love give Itself as food to Its own and this food is the substance which gives them their life and sustains them."

"Love humbles Itself before Its own . . . and in so doing raises them the highest dignity."

"Love surrenders Itself in totality. It gives in profusion and without reserve. With enthusiasm, with vehemence It is sacrificed. It is immolated. It is given for those It loves . . . The Holy Eucharist is love to the extreme folly."
