*Saint of the Day for July 13th
St. Henry*

(May 6, 972 - July 13, 1024)

As German king and Holy Roman Emperor, Henry was a practical man of affairs. He was energetic in consolidating his rule. He crushed rebellions and feuds. On all sides he had to deal with drawn-out disputes so as to protect his frontiers. This involved him in a number of battles, especially in the south in Italy; he also helped Pope Benedict VIII quell disturbances in Rome. Always his ultimate purpose was to establish a stable peace in Europe.

According to eleventh-century custom, Henry took advantage of his position and appointed as bishops men loyal to him. In his case, however, he avoided the pitfalls of this practice and actually fostered the reform of ecclesiastical and monastic life. He was canonized in 1146.

Reflection: All in all, this saint was a man of his times. From our standpoint, he may have been too quick to do battle and too ready to use power to accomplish reforms. But granted such limitations, he shows that holiness is possible in a busy secular life. It is in doing our job that we become saints.

Please pray for the sick of our parish family: Willie Feliciano, Colton Teal, Glenn Anthony Reiniger, Pat Bond, Jim McPhillips, Madeline Kilcullen, Steve Bouchey, and for all those in our parish community in need of our prayers and support.

"We experience joy when we grow, and we grow when we live in the presence of God and listen to the promptings of the Holy Spirit."

MASSTIMES.ORG is a great resource to help find a Mass wherever you are in the country. Have fun!

Power of One Hour, a new 5-part video series, 15-minutes each, to teach us things we might not know about the Catholic Mass. What do the vestments signify? Why do priests kiss the altar? Why do we sit, stand and kneel? Do you or your kids think Mass is "boring"? This series will enhance your understanding of the various parts of the Mass and its beautiful mysteries. "The more you look ~ the more you see"

Walking with Moms in Need is a nationwide, parish-based initiative to increase support for pregnant and parenting mothers in need. It works to ensure that any woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant, or parenting in difficult circumstances, can turn to her local Catholic Church and be connected with the resources she needs. Volunteers walk with moms throughout the motherhood journey, offering them authentic Christian friendship and ongoing support. Find resources at:
