My mouth will declare your praise

Saint of the Day
for July 18th
St. Camillus de Lellis

(1550-July 14, 1614)

Saturday, July 13th

St. Henry

4:30 Ray Skiba – Wife & Sons
 Charles Hewitt – wife, Linda
 Patricia O’Rourke – Tom & Maureen
LaLiberte

Humanly speaking, Camillus was not a likely candidate for sainthood. His mother died when he was a child, his father neglected him, and he grew up with an excessive love for gambling. At 17, he was afflicted with a disease of his leg that remained with him for life. He served in the Venetian army for three years.

Sunday, July 14th

9:00 Rocco & Saverio Valente – Mary Bevevino
 Esther Visk – daughter, Rosanne Milo
 Bud & Joyce Bessette- Lynn & Mike Bessette

Then in the winter of 1574, when he was 24, Camillus gambled away everything he had—savings, weapons, literally down to his shirt. He accepted work at the Capuchin friary at Manfredonia, and was one day so moved by a sermon of the superior that he began a conversion that changed his life. He entered the Capuchin novitiate, but was dismissed because of the apparently incurable sore on his leg

7:15 For Int. of Immaculate Conception Province

Camillus devoted the rest of his life to the care of the sick. With the advice of his friend Saint Philip Neri, he studied for the priesthood and was ordained at the age of 34. Contrary to the advice of his friend, Camillus left San Giacomo and founded a congregation of his own.

Tuesday, July 16th

7:15 For the People of the Parish

Charity was his first concern, but the physical aspects of hospitals also received his diligent attention. Camillus insisted on cleanliness and the technical competence of those who served the sick. In Naples, he and his men went onto the galleys that had plague and were not allowed to land. He discovered that there were people being buried alive, and ordered his brothers to continue the prayers for the dying 15 minutes after apparent death. Camillus himself suffered the disease of his leg through his life. In his last illness, he left his own bed to see if other patients in the hospital needed help.

Reflection: Saints are created by God. Parents must indeed nurture the faith in their children; husbands and wives must cooperate to deepen their baptismal grace; friends must support each other. But all human effort is only the dispensing of divine power. We must all try as if everything depended on us. But only the power of God can fulfill the plan of God—to make us like himself. www.franciscanmedia.org
