GOSPEL REFLECTION, ADORATION and MINISTRIES

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Reflection 30th Sunday in Ordinary time cycle A

All through the scriptures Jesus teaches us that our God is like a loving parent. This week we learn something about that kind of love. The love of God, like a parent's love cannot be returned, it can only be passed on. In the Gospel, the first commandment to love God gives meaning to the second commandment. We can only love others the way that we should when we have the love of God in us.

We can only return his love by keeping his commandments and serving him. That is why Jesus told us that anyone who saw a person hungry and fed him was doing it for him, or anyone who clothed a naked person or visited a prisoner was doing it for him.

The spirit of God fills all of creation, but nowhere is God more present to us than in all of His children who are created in his image. And so, Jesus tells us today that to love our neighbor as ourselves is like the commandment to love God with our whole mind and heart. The two commandments are inseparably bound together.

God fills us with an abundance of his love, and that it spills over to those we come in contact with. We become a channel of his love which is to be given freely and unconditionally to others just as Christ showed us.

God's love is a like a parent's love because it involves the same kind of selflessness and sacrifice for the sake of another. It is love that expects nothing in return. Its only reward is the welfare of the beloved. God's love has no favorites, he made special laws to protect those who struggle in life. His foremost concern is the plight of the orphans and widows, the blind or the lame, the poor or the foreigner and all those who are vulnerable.

Jusus put the command to love of our neighbor right at the top of the list. He tells us that if we do not feed the hungry or care for the sick, cloth the naked or visit the prisoners, that he will say that he never knew us. Our first reading today puts it even more bluntly that God will punish anyone who takes advantage of vulnerable or ignores their plight.

So, as we live in a time in our country where people all around us seem to be struggling and many folks can barely meet their most basic needs. Let us take this opportunity pass on the love that God has shown to us. What can we do today to pass it on?

Deacon Warren

Mass Times-New Schedule for Sunday's

Message from Father Pat,

First, thank you to all our St. Jude the Apostle and St. Michael the Archangel parishioners who participated in the polling this past weekend to help establish a standard Mass schedule to be offered at each parish location. The votes have been tabulated and these are the results:

St. Michael the Archangel - Sunday Mass will be celebrated at 8:30 am beginning on December 3, 2023. Saturday, 4:00 pm Mass will remain the same.

St. Jude the Apostle - Sunday Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 am beginning on December 3, 2023. Saturday, 4:00 pm Mass will remain the same.

This schedule will provide stability as we move forward as faith communities celebrating the sacraments and strengthening our relationship with God. Thank you for your commitment to your parish.
