Reflection for the Week

Today we celebrate the wonderful Feast of Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ.) The Gospel's words truly are very clear and precise, Jesus says, "Take this. This is My Body. This is My Blood." What a gift!

Does my faith enable me to know, that every time I receive the Eucharist, I am receiving, not a symbol or representation, but the Body and Blood of Christ?

MOVIE—JESUS THIRSTS: THE MIRACLE OF THE EUCHARIST

"A 2019 Pew Research Study unveiled a concerning reality: only one-third of practicing U.S. Catholics believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. In Jesus Thirsts: Engaging in dialogue with notable Catholic figures, the film explores the biblical origins of the Eucharist and shares personal stories of individuals whose lives have been transformed by the Blessed Sacrament. This exploration makes it unmistakably clear that the Eucharist is not merely a symbol, but is indeed Jesus Christ Himself — fervently desiring to quench our spiritual thirst with His boundless love." <https://shorturl.at/3V1oq> You can view the movie at Regal Crossgates and Colonie Center on June 4 & 5.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES: SOLEMNITY OF MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This year, the Solemnity of Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is celebrated Friday, June 7. Although devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus goes back many centuries, it was not celebrated universally in the Church until 1856 when Pope Pius IX made it a solemnity. It is always celebrated during the octave of Corpus Christi or 19 days after Pentecost Sunday. The Sacred Heart of Jesus represents his divine love for humanity. First Friday Devotions, The 12 promises, Sacred Heart badges, and Novena Pamphlet prayer cards are available in the gathering space.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THIS IS MY BODY

A friend in high school once asked me why I wore a Crucifix around my neck. She was a Christian and very devout, so I was surprised at her confusion. "To remember Jesus' sacrifice," I said. Her upper lip curled in disgust. "The cross is a sign of Jesus' sacrifice," she said. "He's not on the cross anymore. It's really weird that you wear his dead body." As someone raised Catholic, the Corpus was an image I knew intimately. We had Crucifixes all over our home, everyone in my family did. And for reasons I couldn't quite explain, I actually preferred them over the plain crosses I saw elsewhere. The crosses seemed more elegant, more refined — but the Crucifixes felt more complete. More to-the-point. My friend's disgust compelled me to reflect, in a way I never had before, on the image of Christ's body, wounded and twisted and tortured. Why was this a visual that compelled me? It didn't make a lot of sense for someone who abhorred dead bodies so much that I found it difficult to look into a casket at a wake. So, what was different about this? My friend wasn't wrong: Christ is no longer on the cross. The sacrifice has been made. But does that mean it is over? We re-present it every single Mass. It's the point of everything that we do. Jesus did not sacrifice his spirit; he sacrificed his body. He bought us with every tear of the flesh, with every drop of blood. The cross is crucial, yes. But that wood didn't bleed for us. If the body wasn't the point, Jesus would not have become human at all. Jesus needed the body. We need it, too. "While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'" — Matthew 26:26
