An Amazing Grace

God's grace and mercy throws the whole reward and punishment system out the window. So sometimes I want to yell "noooooo" and reach as fast as I can to get it back. Forgiveness can sting when we don't feel "worthy" of it, when it seems like we are getting away with something.... As if feeling bad for what I have done is the same as being good, when in fact it is not.

What if we've already been forgiven for the ways we've hurt the people we love? What if we've already been forgiven for not being perfect parents? What if we've already been forgiven for the [stuff] we haven't even done yet? Maybe forgiving myself isn't something that happens at Mass or in Church, but is a daily option. Give us this day our daily forgiveness, even for ourselves.

According to our diocesan tradition, the annual collection to support Catholic Relief Services will be taken this weekend of March 29/30, 2025. The timing of this collection could not be more relevant given the current state of our world.

For many years, across the globe Catholic Relief Services has helped families facing wars, natural disasters, political strife, extreme poverty, and human trafficking. Historically, the CRS Collection helps to provide for basic humanitarian needs, protect vulnerable children, and reunite families. The reach of this Collection spans the globe helping families on every continent, with an array of ethnicities and backgrounds, addressing a myriad of needs. Thank you for supporting the ministry of our Church.
