Welcome!

We embrace and welcome with great joy our new Bishop, Mark O'Connell, who is called upon to serve all the people of our Albany Diocese. We uplift Bishop Mark with our prayer of love. We thank Bishop Edward Scharfenberger for his years of dedicated service.

We Pray Christmas

The immense joy of Christmas is obvious in our worship space as flowers, wreaths, stars, and angels surround us. One can't help but smile. The feeding through manger is beneath the Table of the Lord where we are fed with the Body and Blood of Christ.

As we gather, we echo the song of the angels "Glory to God!" Our response to the Hebrew Scripture is the canticle "Today our Savior is born. This is the day, Christ our Savior is born!". We arise for the Gospel singing "Alleluia! Jesus is the Light of the world."

When we gather at the Table, we proclaim our mystery "Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free."

After our Great Amen we tenderly sing "Our Father...", inviting Jesus' words to uplift our hearts as a community of faith. We are sent forth to be the mission of Jesus Christ born among us.

BEATITUDES OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

"Faith can no longer be a matter of habit! Its truths, which we have been hearing since childhood, must consume and capture our interest. In a word, we must become living Christians again!... Let us be blunt. If our religion is but a "Sunday thing" and we do not draw any ideals or strength from it in order to handle our everyday toils, what is the use of such religions? See this as a calling for our times and as a calling from God in today's struggle for faith. O Christian! Put your religion again at the core of your daily life!" ~Fr. Jan Franciszek Macha (a Polish priest executed by the Nazis in occupied Poland 1942).

A Word from God

I want you to know I love you today and forever.. I always have. I want you to know how much I truly cherish you.. Just as you are.

I'm with you every moment. I enjoy laughing with you. I'm thrilled at your adventures and fun times. My heart leaps at your loves and dreams. Let my joy enthuse you.

My heart aches with your hurts and worries. Let my tears heal your wounds.

I want you to live in peace and take care of each other. Have faith in yourself.. Believe in your amazing abilities.. your goodness.. your creativity.. Trust your spirit... let it soar.

Each day wake up knowing you are never alone. When your cross is too heavy, remember I've been there and we can do it together. And when darkness, tombs overwhelms... I breathe life into you.

Remember.. When you come together, listen to each other, eat around the Table... I am here among and with you.. born again...right now.. When you need skin.. I give you my heart...I give you each other... I give you my word...Jesus.

Respectfully,

God

God's Word to humanity is not primarily the word read in a book, but it is the Word Incarnate, not only as a human being, but present as the element in all beings, in all created reality... seen and unseen... understood and beyond. The feast of Jesus' birth says that it's good to be human, it's good to be on this Earth, it's good to have a body, it's good to have emotions, it's good to have dreams and hopes. Let's never be ashamed or fearful... let us be a new dawning... filled with joy, renewed connections, and wonder.
