Saint of the Day for April 27th St. Louis Mary Grignion de Montfort

(Jan. 31, 1673– April 28, 1716)

Louis's life is inseparable from his efforts to promote genuine devotion to Mary, the mother of Jesus and mother of the Church. Totus tuus ("completely yours") was Louis's personal motto; Pope John Paul II chose it as his episcopal motto. Born in the Breton village of Montfort, close to Rennes, France, as an adult Louis identified himself by the place of his baptism instead of his family name, Grignion. After being educated by the Jesuits and the Sulpicians, he was ordained a diocesan priest in 1700. His years of ministering to the poor prompted him to travel and live very simply, sometimes getting him into trouble with Church authorities. In his preaching, which attracted thousands of people back to the faith, Father Louis recommended frequent, even daily, Holy Communion not the custom then -and imitation of the Virgin Mary's ongoing acceptance of God's will for her life. Louis founded the Missionaries of the Company of Mary, for priests and brothers, and the Daughters of Wisdom, who cared especially for the sick. His book True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin has become a classic explanation of Marian devotion. Reflection: Like Mary, Louis experienced challenges in his efforts to follow Jesus. Opposed at times in his preaching and in his other ministries, Louis knew with Saint Paul, "Neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who causes the growth" (1 Corinthians 3:7). Any attempt to succeed by worldly standards runs the risk of betraying the Good News of Jesus. Mary is "the first and most perfect disciple," as the late Sulpician Father Raymond Brown described her, www.franciscanmedia.org

Please pray for the sick of our parish family: Willie Feliciano, Colton Teal, Glenn Anthony Reiniger, Pat Bond, Buddy McAvoy, Jim McPhillips, Madeline Kilcullen, and for all those in our parish community in need of our prayers and support.

DAILY SCRIPTURE READINGS

The US Council of Catholic Bishops makes daily readings available on their website. To see the readings, responsorial psalm and Gospel for the day's Mass, please visit. http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings. Here, you can also sign up to receive a daily email from USCCB with a link to the days Scripture readings.

Bequests & Memorials

The parish is grateful to the family of Maria DeGiorgio for directing donations to the parish in her memory. The parish received donations totaling $698.00 from family and friends.

These memorial donations, and donations given for specific projects, are deposited into the parish's Capital Campaign; an account started in 2013 to address the multiple repairs and maintenance issues in the parish. Since then, many repairs have been addressed and many still remain. Memorial donations at the time of a loved one's passing are a generous way to remember them and also help the church continue our mission. We offer our prayers and gratitude to Maria and her family.
