Saint of the Day for October 12th Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos

Francis Xavier Seelos

(January 11, 1819– October 4, 1867)

Zeal as a preacher and a confessor led Father Seelos to works of compassion as well.

Born in southern Bavaria, he studied philosophy and theology in Munich. On hearing about the work of the Redemptorists among German-speaking Catholics in the United States, he came to this country in 1843. Ordained at the end of 1844, he was assigned for six years to St. Philomena's Parish in Pittsburgh as an assistant to Saint John Neumann. The next three years Father Seelos was superior in the same community, and began his service as novice master.

Several years in parish ministry in Maryland followed, along with responsibility for training Redemptorist students. During the Civil War Fr. Seelos went to Washington, D.C., and appealed to President Lincoln that those students not be drafted for military service, although eventually some were.

For several years, he preached in English and in German throughout the Midwest and in the Mid-Atlantic states. Assigned to St. Mary of the Assumption Church community in New Orleans, Fr. Seelos served his Redemptorist confreres and parishioners with great zeal. In 1867, he died of yellow fever, having contracted that disease while visiting the sick. He was beatified in 2000. The liturgical feast of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos is celebrated on October 5.

Reflection: Father Seelos worked in many different places but always with the same zeal: to help people know God's love and compassion. He preached about the works of mercy and then engaged in them, even risking his own health.

Please pray for the southern states hit by Hurricane Helene. Catholic Charities USA has a Hurricane Helene Relief fund. You can find a link at <https://www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/> which says 100% of donations go to help those affected by this disaster.

"There is a constant battle being fought in my heart, and in yours. The battle is between love and power, between the love of power and the power of love. The more the power to love grows within us the more our love of power decreases."

RESPECT LIFE MONTH OCTOBER

During the month of October, the parish will be collecting funds to be used to purchase CDTA bus passes for expecting mothers. Local women who visit the Roarke Center to access their maternity care program are often in need of transportation.

The 2025 Mass Book Has Arrived

Walking with Moms in Need is a nationwide, parish-based initiative to increase support for pregnant and parenting mothers in need. It works to ensure that any woman who finds herself unexpectedly pregnant, or parenting in difficult circumstances, can turn to her local Catholic Church and be connected with the resources she needs. Volunteers walk with moms throughout the motherhood journey, offering them authentic Christian friendship and ongoing support. Learn more about implementing a program at your home parish at walkingwithmoms.com
