Tea & Short Reads

Tackle a piece of literature on your own and then come to discuss it over a cup of tea at All Saints Catholic Church. We meet every Wednesday at 12:30pm, 12 Rosemont Street, All Saints Catholic Church Parish Offices, in the “Upper Room” (immediately next to All Saints Academy)

Tackle the reading on your own time, and then come on Wednesdays to discuss over a cup of tea. Snacks to share are welcome, but by no means expected! This time around, some of our readings are arranged to coincide with the end of summer, All Souls' Day on Nov. 2, and Veteran's Day on Nov. 11.

Parking is available in the lot from Brevator Street and limited parking on Rosemont. We would ask more able-bodied folks to use the parking lot, to allow those with canes to access our meeting space more easily from Rosemont Street.

October 2 – All Summer in a Day by Ray Bradbury

October 9 – Tobit from the Hebrew Scriptures

October 16 – October Poem by Paul Laurence Dunbar
& An October Garden by Christina Rossetti

October 23 – Where Are You Going? Where Have You Been? by Joyce Carol Oats

October 30 – The Cask of Amontillado by Edgar Allan Poe

November 6 – Visiting a Dead Man on a Summer's Day
by Marge Piercy

November 13 – The Death of the Ball Turret Gunner
by Randall Jarrell & In Flanders Fields by John McCrae

November 20 – Thanksgiving by Ella Wheeler Wilcox

If midday Wednesdays are a bad time, feel free to take the stories, gather some friends, and meet on your own over a cup of tea at a home, coffee shop, or anywhere else! The readings are available for free on Blessed Sacrament's website: www.blessedsacramentalbany.org/tea-short-reads/
