4th Sunday of Easter

The Gospel this Sunday speaks of Jesus as the good shepherd who will lead us out, watch over us, and safely gather us back into the fold. Even if we should stray from him, he will leave the others to seek us out and bring us back.

The safety of coming and going, in the diligent care of a shepherd was a very familiar expression of peace and safety for the people of Jesus' time.

The same sense of security that is expressed in this Gospel is no less assured to us today when we listen to the voice of Jesus, and we follow Him. He is the shepherd who watches over His flock and leads us safely to eternal life.

Jesus' sheep know his voice and that is how we continue to follow Him. So, let us take a moment today to reflect on the ways that we hear His voice.

His voice can take many forms in our lives. Often the voice of Jesus comes to us through the people around us, through family and friends, co-workers, teachers and classmates.

Among all these people in our lives, the ordained clergy, the religious and ...especially our pastor... are special ways that we hear Jesus' voice. So, Good Shepherd Sunday is also called Vocation Sunday, and it is kept as a World Day of Prayer for vocations, especially for those to the priesthood.

So, praying for vocations is the first thing we are encouraged to do today. Yet Vocations Sunday doesn't stop there; we all have a vocation and we all can be the voice of Jesus to others. Every one of us has a call from God to serve each other and to share in the task of reaching out to those who are lost.

So today we also consider the ways we exercise our own vocation.

No matter what our work or profession is, we are first followers of Jesus who share our gifts in ways which contribute to the wellbeing of our communities and witness our faith in Christ to others.

It is a tremendous grace, for me, and I think for all of us, to be part of this community, which responds so generously to this call.

So, we pray also for ourselves this Sunday, for the continued Grace to hear his voice and respond with generous hearts, as we have so faithfully done in the past.

Bereavement Ministry — Living with Loss

Living with Loss Opening Prayer

Heavenly Father-Be with us today as we journey through our grief. The more we can learn and the more we can share with others will help us heal the holes in our hearts. We ask the Blessed Mother to be with us on this journey called life. May her gentle arms be wrapped around us as she knows how painful losing a loved one can be. We can do this with your guidance, Father. Stay close to us today and every day. Amen

FROM OUR PARISH NURSE

Death of a loved one can be a difficult life event. No one grieves in the same way-being sad, getting mad, feelings of anger are all normal responses we can experience after this kind of life-altering event. Our newly formed bereavement group may be able to help you. Our next meeting is Thursday, May 4 at 2 pm in the Parish Office. Come sit with us for a session or if that time does not work for you, we might be able to hold another session that would work better for you. Call Jo Flanigan at 518-894-1009 or Ellen Hartnagle at 518-527-7956 if you have any questions.

The next Living with Loss Support Group will be held on Thursday, May 4th at 2 pm at the Parish Center. Those who are interested are invited to attend. Please call 518-283-6420 or 518-527-7956 if you have any questions.

Do you know of a parishioner who can no longer attend Mass but would like to participate in receiving the Eucharist at their home? We have visitors who can bring the Eucharist to those who would like it.

Please call the Parish Office and visits will be set up.
