Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel this week tells the story of one of the most important events for the disciples to witness about Jesus' ministry. They had recently been told by Jesus himself of the kind of death he would face. This knowledge of Jesus' fate was a terrible blow to the perception they had of their savior.

They still had the idea that Jesus' great victory over their oppressors would come with Christ as a warrior King. They never thought their salvation would come through the sacrifice of His own life. Like a Lamb to the slaughter. When Peter vowed not to let that happen, Jesus rebuked Him saying, "Get behind me Satan." The disciples were definitely confused and their faith in His divine nature was weakened. But, Jesus then took them up the mountain with Him where they were given an unmistakable revelation of the divine nature of Jesus. They saw His face shining with God's glory and His clothes white as light. They heard the voice of God himself saying, "This is my beloved Son, listen to him."

This moment of divine revelation may be one of the most important reasons these disciples were able to follow Christ to the end, even in the face of growing calls for His death.

Reflecting on this God moment has given me a greater understanding of the importance of those unmistakable God moments that we sometimes experience in our own lives. God comes to the aid of our faith when need it the most. We need to be attentive to the ways God is present in our lives that our faith will be strengthened to follow Christ more closely.

Let us keep those moments of God's touch in our lives close to our hearts that we too will remain strong in our faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

May God's blessing be with you all!

PARISH MINISTRIES

From the Parish Nurse

Many of our parishioners are mourning the loss of our dear friends, Betty and Tom Zemanick. As a tribute to both of them, we will be collecting donations in their memory to contribute to a new School Walkway Garden with a memorial stone in memory of Betty and Tom who both loved our parish, our school, gardening and flowers. Anyone interested in participating, please make out your check to St. Jude the Apostle School and indicate that your donation is earmarked for the Memorial Garden. You can either mail in or drop off your check to the school or place it in an envelope and place it in the collection basket during the offertory. Direct any questions you may have to Jo Flanigan at 518-894-1009. Thank you.
