Dear Parishioners,

This week Mrs. Danielle Cox, the Principal of St. Jude the Apostle School announced she has been offered and accepted the position of Principal of St. Pius X School in Loudonville, New York. I am deeply grateful for her dedicated service to St. Jude the Apostle School and I sincerely wish her well as she begins a new chapter in her professional career in education.

It is with great joy that I announce to you that Mrs. Kristine Hoffay has been appointed by me as the interim St. Jude the Apostle School Principal for the 2020-2021 School year. Mrs. Hoffay is a lifelong parishioner of St. Jude the Apostle Church and she has been a dedicated member of the school faculty for 22 years.

Mrs Hoffay has taught both Second and Third grades as well as teaching Faith Formation for all the grade levels. In 2019 Mrs. Hoffay was appointed by me as Assistant School Principal for which she has assisted Mrs. Cox in all aspects of school administration. Here vast experience in leadership will provide the school with continued academic excellence and innovation for the future.

Please welcome Mrs. Hoffay As our new interim St. Jude the Apostle School Principal for the 2020-2021 academic school year.

With every Grace and Blessing, I am Sincerely Yours,

Very Rev. Anthony F. Ligato

Pastor St. Jude the Apostle Church and School
